

AAUW Marin Programs for 2016-2017

- July 17
Sunday 12:30 – 3
Summer Fling—Just for fun. Come meet new members or bring a prospective member! Home of Chris O’Neill, San Rafael. $5-$10 donation per person requested, but free to new members joining July 1, 2015 or later.
- August 18
Thursday, 5-7
Sip and Sup—Come catch up with your AAUW friends. No host drinks at Jason’s with appetizers hosted by the branch. Optional Dutch treat dinner for those who can stay. Jason’s Restaurant, Greenbrae
- September 10
Saturday, 2-4
Tech Trek Girls and Hilary Staples, teacher, on Biomimicry--- Community Room at the Town Center, Corte Madera. Sliding scale donation: $5 -$10
- October 22
Saturday, 2-4
College Debate 2016—Presentation by Dominican University students on their work with the Presidential Debate Commission to provide college students nationally a platform to discuss and debate the complex issues facing our county. Town Center, Corte Madera. Sliding scale donation $5-$10
- November 5
Saturday, 10-noon
Our annual get together at Book Passage with Elaine Petrocelli holding forth on her picks of the best books of the season. Book Passage, Sliding scale donation $5-$10
- December 3
Saturday, 11:30–3
Our always wonderful Holiday Luncheon and Silent Auction to raise funds for our local scholarships and Tech Trek. The Club at McInnis Park--$38 +/-
- January 7
Saturday, 10-noon
Update on College of Marin, with Dr. David Wain Coon, President, College of Marin, plus tour of the COM Campus. Free
- February 25
Saturday, 10-noon
Tri-branch brunch with Novato and Petaluma branches, with Dr. Nahid Angha speaking on International Women’s Issues. Key Room, Homeward Bound, $25
- March 11
Saturday, 10-noon
All Things AAUW. Come be enlightened about AAUW’s amazing programs and support for women and girls. AAUW Fund Fellow Speaker and yummy pot luck brunch. Home of Cherie Sorokin. $5 if you don’t want to bring food.
- April 22
Saturday, 2-4
Afternoon Tea at the Key Room, with Mali Kigasari, EEOC Investigator, speaking on discrimination in the workforce as well as her own interesting story as an Iranian immigrant. $14 +/-.
- May 20
Saturday, 9:30-noon
Monet, the Early Years, Presentation by Rita Dunlay, docent, Fine Arts Museum of SF, Annual Meeting/Awards Brunch. The Club at McInnis Park, $26

Breaking Through Barriers for Women and Girls