

AAUW Marin Programs for 2017-2018

- July 23
Sunday 12:30 – 3
Summer Fling—Just for fun. Come meet new members or bring a prospective member! Home of Chris O’Neill, San Rafael. $5-$10 donation per person requested, but free to new members joining July 1, 2016 or later.
- August 24
Thursday, 4-6
Sip and Sup—Come catch up with your AAUW friends. No host drinks at Jason’s with appetizers hosted by the branch. Optional Dutch treat dinner for those who can stay. Jason’s Restaurant, Greenbrae
- September 16
Saturday, 10-noon
Tech Trek Girls and Metadel Abegaz from Romberg Center on The Perils of Rising Sea Temperatures--- Community Room at the Town Center, Corte Madera. Sliding scale donation: $5 -$10
- October 21
Saturday, 10-noon
Homelessness and Marin —Cia Brynes, Executive Director of Ritter House in San Rafael will talk to us about this issue and how it is being addressed in Marin, Town Center, Corte Madera. Sliding scale donation $5-$10
- November 11
Saturday, 10-noon
Our annual get together at Book Passage with Elaine Petrocelli holding forth on her picks of the best books of the season. Book Passage, Sliding scale donation $5-$10
- December 2
Saturday, 11:30–3
Our always wonderful Holiday Luncheon and Silent Auction to raise funds for our local scholarships and Tech Trek. The Club at McInnis Park--$40 +/-
- January 20
Saturday, 10-noon
Community Healthcare Issues, Linda Tavaszi, PHD, Chief Executive Officer, Marin Community Clinics, Corte Madera Town Center, Sliding scale donation $5-$10
- February 17
Saturday, 10-noon
Tri-branch brunch with Novato and Petaluma branches at Homeward Bound. Judy Sakaki, President, Sonoma State University. Cost TBD. Petaluma Branch is host.
- March 10
Saturday, 4-6 pm
Wine, Cheese, and Conversation with an AAUW Funds Fellow and a NCCWSL scholarship winner. Home of Cherie Sorokin, Tiburon. Sliding scale donation $5 - 10.
- April 28th
Saturday, 2-4
Afternoon Tea at Homeward Bound with Paola Gianturco, documentary photographer, sharing photos and stories from her latest project: Wonder Girls, Changing Our World. $22 +/-.
- May 19
Saturday, 10-noon
The Battle for Reproductive Rights, TBD Representatives from Planned Parenthood, Annual Meeting/Awards Brunch. The Club at McInnis Park, $26+/-

Breaking Through Barriers for Women and Girls